

General Guidelines & Exceptions
Commercial / Non Resident Business	Any entity that is in the business of making profit is categorized as a Commercial entity. Even if such a entity, conducts community service events to directly / indirectly promote their business interests will have to pay applicable Commercial rates
Resident Business	Any resident individual / family, setting up weekend / holiday stalls in Sarovar facilities for their personal business, with the intent of making profit or for promotion is categorized under "Resident Business"
Private	Any resident individual that would like to avail the facilities for purely personal purposes that are legally allowed, will have to pay rates applicable for "Private" category
NGO	A non-governmental organization (NGO) is any non-profit, voluntary citizens' group which is organized on a local, national or international level registered with the government authorities. Task-oriented and driven by people with a common interest, NGOs perform a variety of service and humanitarian functions, bring citizen concerns to Governments, advocate and monitor policies and encourage political participation through provision of information.
Sponsorship / Stalls	Estate Manager will be responsible for renting out all Sarovar facilities as per the defined rate card, with a discretion of a max. of 10% discount. No special approvals required for any potential upside for sponsorship . stall rentals. Any exceptions will have to be approved by Secretary or President
Aerobics, Meditation, Basement Conference Rooms	For recurring commercial activities, no more than 3 hours / day booking will be allowed per each coach / teacher / group, if there is a demand for same facility from other trainer / teachers. Booking will be on first cum first serve basis, and can be booked upto 2 months in advance.
Recurring Community Events	Any non profit event, conducted by registered resident committees, with external sponsorship, wd open for widespread community participation, such as Ganesh Utsav, Dussehra, Christmas etc. Such events will only pay 50% of the published PRIVATE category rates . The central lawn will be provided for free during the event days. 30% of all the sponsorships will be paid to ASOWS. All surplus funds from such events will be parked with ASOWS Cultural Fund, for re-use in subsequent years All facilities such as MPH, Aerobics, Meditation, AV room and Basement Conf Rooms can be given for community event rehearsals or meetings at NO COST subject to availability on the given day. However, no pre-booking is allowed to prevent potential revenue loss to society.
Non Profit Community Events by Residents	Any non profit and non ticketed event, with no external sponsorship, purely based on resident voluntary funding, conducted / organized by resident volunteers for the benefit of residents or support staff, in relation with community service, education, social awareness, spiritual discourses, medical camps etc. Such events can be conducted for substantially discounted / minimal charges, covering for electricity, wear and tear etc or a complete Waiver of fees at the discretion of Secretary or President.
Fund Raising Community Events by NGOs	NGO entities when conducting non ticketed community events, but does fund raising or solicit a mandatory donation, and the event is for exclusive benefit of Sarovar residents, will then be entitled for discounted rates of 25% of the published PRIVATE category rates.
Non Profit Community Events by NGOs	NGO entities when conducting non ticketed event with no fees / mandatory donations, and the event is for exclusive benefit of Sarovar residents, can be entitled for substantially discounted / minimal charges, covering for electricity, wear and tear etc or a complete Waiver of fees at the discretion of Secretary or President.